

hurry matters, bring our staff in, bring people in and then we'll lolligag around on Friday, after Friday, after Friday, with people not being here. So I think we -ought to just take the days and go.

SPEAKER: Senator Dickinson.

SENATOR DICKINSON: I think I would like a comment or two, I would like to support Senator Carpenters suggestion that we do stay here and work and I would like to say to Senator Lewis that we don't all need days off to spend days campaigning for higher office, so I think that we should surely stay here and work.

SPEAKER: Senator Lewis is now closing.

SENATOR LEWIS: I'd like to address myself the second time on this issue and respond to Senator Dickinsons remard about campaigning. That's exactly where I'll be sweetheart. And those are good days for that too.

SPEAKER: The motion is that we take off the 11th, the 12th, and the 18th. All those in favor vote aye, those opposed vote no. Have you all voted. The clerk will record.

CLERK; 7 ayes, 27 nays, Mr. President.

SPEAKER: Motion looses. Is there another motion, Senator Marsh.

SENATOR MARSH: Mr. Speaker, I move that we take the 18th off, which is also the federal state holiday, so that we take one day off and allow our staff at least half of what they deserve.

SPEAKER: That is Monday. Is there any further discussion? Senator Carpenter.

SENATOR CARPENTER: Well I don't think our staff is over worked. I don't think anybody is overworked. And this is no time to start taking a vacation. Take it if you want to, but I think it is bad public relations.

SPEAKER: Senator Rasmussen.

SENATOR RASMUSSEN: Mr. Speaker, members of the body. I'd say lets work, and as to my good friend Senator Frank, I hope the vote on the wall didn't say something.

SPEAKER: Is there any further discussion, Senator Lewis.

SENATOR LEWIS: I just would like to say that now I'd like to -in advance object to anyone being excused on the 11th, the 12th or the 18th.

SPEAKER: The question is shall we take the 18th off. All those in favor vote aye, all those opposed vote no. The clerk will record.

CLERK: 8 ayes, 24 nays and 17 not voting, Mr. President.

SPEAKER: The motion is lost. Are there any corrections for the Journal
